SERIOUS RUNAWAY MISHAP

LOST—A silver pocket book marked A. B. F., between Taylor and Hubbard's feed house and Sunset Cottage. Reward will be given if returned to Miss Bigelow, Sunset Cottage, Newtown, Aug. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dwyer had a narrow escape from serious injury Saturday evening about 8:30 as they were driving along Newtown street with a horse and top carriage belonging to H. L. Coser of Botsford by whom Mr. Dwyer is employed. As they came near Trinity church the horse became frightened at a standing auto, while another came down the street, and dashed madly down Church hill the driver held to the reins until the bit broke and he was thrown out near the "Post office" and dragged just below the tailoring establishment where the horse got away and Mrs. Dwyer was thrown over the prostrate arm of her husband, who was apparently unconscious. The accident was witnessed by people in the vicinity who immediately assisted Mr. Dwyer in, they held him in very short time and both parties were taken to the residence of P. H. Gannon where Mrs. Gannon kindly made them comfortable. It is a miracle that the escaped with minor injuries as on account of the dry weather the stones on the roads are more numerous. Mr. Dwyer's left ear was severed at the top enough to require two stitches to be taken, another small deep cut on the chin otherwise the left side of the face was badly injured. There were many small abrasions on the entire face and both hands. Outside of a bad abrasion and painful stiffness on his limb he is able to be about as usual. Mrs. Dwyer had a few small bruises on one hand while a deep cut was made in her clothing without any injury to her person. She suffered very much from shock. The horse travelled around the country in great shape, meeting another auto on the way and cut off on a back road and back again to the turnpike where it overtook Gilbert's meat wagon returning from their route. Mr. Gilbert succeeded in not allowing the animal to go by and Mr. Greenman who had been telephoned to from the Johnson residence came to the rescue, where the animal was put up for the night. Two spokes in a wheel were broken and the horse escaped without a scratch. The articles in the wagon were found in various parts of the country travelled by the frightened animal. The parties were taken home by P. H. Gannon after their injuries were dressed.

Another interesting ball game was enjoyed by a large gathering Saturday at the Fair grounds between the Men's Federation and the Bethel Union. The score was 20-6. The parties were taken home by P. H. Gannon after their injuries were dressed. Mrs. Lang and daughter Miss Anna Lang of New York are guests of Mrs. Henry Lang of Walnut Tree Hill. John Finnell of Bridgeport spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. P. Lyons. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fairchild of Jersey are enjoying a visit at the Newtown Inn. Mrs. H. S. Walsh of Walnut Tree Hill is among those on sick leave. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Beers and family have returned from an extended visit at Fort Trumbull Beach. Mr. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Mary and Elizabeth Corbett, Catherine Phelan of Bridgeport, Helen Kilbride and Edward Kilbride of Jersey City were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Corbett. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Keane visited friends in New Haven, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Garry Oakley and family returned to Mamaroneck, Saturday, after enjoying two weeks at their summer home in Zoar. Miss Adelaide Brinton is visiting friends in New Milford. Thomas Leavy is entertaining his niece Miss Marion Harris of Milford. Mr. M. F. Crowe and daughter Gertrude have returned from a visit with friends in New York city. Miss Julia Coolihan of Danbury passed Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Kate Ward of Walnut Tree Hill. Miss Helen Kilbride has returned from a two weeks' visit with friends in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Leavy and Miss Roseline Leavy have enjoyed a visit in Bridgeport. Mrs. Frank Blake and daughter Louise of New York are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Blake. Mr. John Haugh and Miss Marguerite Kilbride visited friends in the Park City, Friday. Miss Helena Finnell is visiting her cousin, Miss Helena McCarthy of Danbury. Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter Thursday, August 12th.

RECITAL BY PUPILS OF MRS. J. W. GORDON

NEWTOWN'S ANNUAL SUMMER SOCIAL EVENT PROVED MOST SUCCESSFUL.

The summer concert by pupils of Mrs. James W. Gordon assisted by other local talent given at the Town Hall in Newtown, Friday evening, August 13, was very successful in every detail and the very best musical program rendered by the talented performers and of the very large gathering present, nothing but words of appreciation were heard on all sides, which was further demonstrated by the hearty applause and calling back of each and every number of the program and in several cases a third recall.

Everyone taking part is to be commended for the ease and smoothness in which the numbers on the program were executed. The stage presented a brilliant and happy picture, with masses of golden glow and ferns across the footlights while beautifully colored flowers with lamps illumined the stage proper all of which was the work of a few of the young folks entirely and showed fine taste in the art of decorating. Allison P. Smith kindly acted as Chairman for the evening and introduced the various numbers in his usual courteous manner. The stage was decorated in details and while in their solo work, Miss Ammie Allen, Masters Fredrick Leise and Harold Ray, etc.

the hearts of the audience as well as Misses Jessie Gordon and Exella King in their violin duet. The two piano duets by Misses Adeline Brington, Anne Houlihan, also by Debora King and Charlene Driscoll, were equally well received in fact the enthusiasm only increased as the evening progressed. The Men's Quartette composed of Messrs. Peck, Nichols, McGuire and Steele were fine in the rendition of their numbers and were several times recalled. The Septette by three young ladies at the piano and four violins one of the gems of the evening, was composed of Flannos, Misses Rychie Veness, Catherine Farrell, Anna Houlihan, Violins, Misses Millie Allen, Rorette Gordon, Mrs. Gordon, Edward Pitzschler. The orchestra of Mandolins and Violas accompanied by young Miss Mary Kilbride on the piano came in for a fine share of enthusiastic applause. This being Miss Campbell's first appearance in her home town it was gratifying to note the friendly ovation she deservedly received. King's Kitchen Symphony in which Charles J. Peck as conductor was pronounced a whole entertainment was the last number of the evening and pronounced as worth the price of admission alone. When taking into consideration the miles travelled by all the performers to get together and actually failing in, they, their teacher's endeavors, such an entertainment is a wonder. The audience was representative of the town's good people and Danbury, Bethel, Brookfield, Hawleyville, Southford and many outlying districts were represented. Newtown is not behind by any means in musical taste and talent.

Keeping House in St. Petersburg. In St. Petersburg housekeeping costs more, it is said, than in the other European capitals. To begin with, nothing can be bought without bargaining, and those who are skillful in the art have the advantage over their neighbors. If you know how to get on the soft side of a Russian tradesman and ply him with proverbs and jokes you can cut his price down to the narrowest margin of profit; otherwise he simply robs you. Indeed, he cannot well do otherwise, because not only a trick of the trade, but an unwritten law, obliges him to ask for his wares from 30 to 40 per cent more than he expects. He himself would be astonished if you would take him at his word. Then, again, of course, a great deal depends on the choice of shops. One of the most satisfactory ways of buying provisions is not to visit any shops, but to repair to the open air markets. In certain public squares of the capitals little stalls are fixed up every morning and here fruits, vegetables, meat, poultry, hardware and haberdashery can be bought up to noon. But at the strike of 12 every booth and stall vanishes.

The Black of the Eye. The invariable blackness of the pupil of the eye was a puzzle to scientific men until Professor Helmholtz showed it to be the necessary effect of refraction. Sufficient rays are reflected from the bottom of the eye to render visible the parts there situated, but since these reflected rays in emerging from the eye must traverse the same ocular media through which they passed in entering the eye it is evident that they must undergo the same refraction which they underwent as entering rays, only in an opposite direction. The result of this is that the paths of the emerging and entering rays coincide, and the former will therefore return to the source whence as incidental rays they originally started. There is nothing in the pupil to reflect light—in fact, it resembles a window looking into a dark room.

He Didn't Mind the Fog. The London Chronicle relates that during a dense fog in London a military man advanced in years lost his way completely in the nocturnal vapor. Bumping against a stranger, he explained his misfortune and gave his address. "I know it quite well," said the stranger, "and I will take you there." It was some distance, but the guide never hesitated for a moment on the whole route. "This is your door," he said at last as a house loomed dimly before them. "Bless my soul," said the old gentleman, "so it is! But how on earth have you been able to make your way through such a fog?" "I know every stick and stone in this part of London," said the stranger quietly, "for I am blind!"

Forbear and Forgive. Do not expect too much from others, but remember that all have some ill nature, whose occasional outcropping we must expect, and that we must forbear and forgive, as we often desire forbearance and forgiveness ourselves.

The child is a bundle of instincts, not a sheet of white paper.—G. H. Archibald.

WHEN A MAN'S FIFTY

When the average man reaches the age of fifty years, his body begins to creak a little at the hinges. Motion is more slow and deliberate. "Oh, so young as he used to be" is a frequent and unwelcome thought which obtrudes itself. Little indulgences in the way of rich food and stimulating drinks must be foregone. Certain bodily functions, upon which good health and good spirits so much depend, are impaired. As a rule, the weak spot is

THE BLADDER

When this organ becomes affected, even in a slight degree, it gives rise to most unpleasant symptoms. Painful and annoying complications in other organs arise, and a generally disagreeable condition exists. This is particularly true with elderly people. The important feature of the matter is that the trouble can be obviated and cured. A remedy is at hand which is at the same time effective and inexpensive—GOLD MEDAL HAZLEHILL OIL CAPSULES.

This old-fashioned, time-honored home remedy stands without an equal as an effective and sure remedy for all Bladder, Kidney, Liver and Stomach troubles. It has been used over 200 years, and thousands testify to its efficacy. Lately, however, many worthless and injurious imitations have sprung up. The Pure Food and Drug Law makes it difficult for these frauds. The genuine, reliable, trustworthy Hazlehill Oil is named GOLD MEDAL.

Gold Medal Hazlehill Oil is put up in two forms, in Capsules and Bottles. Capsules 25c. and 50c. per box. Bottles 50c. and $1.00, at all druggists. Be sure you obtain the Gold Medal Tilly brand. HOLLAND MEDICINE COMPANY, SCRANTON, PA.
